FROM OUR PRESIDENT, COMMITTEE CHAIRS and ROTARIANS

[Thanks to John Keeffe for his assistance in compiling this report]

Shake the Can

Members once again did their duty on Cup weekend at the Caltex Service Centres on the Hume. Friday and Saturday northbound, Tuesday southbound. Organiser Tony Lee tells us that approx. $1600 was collected. Well done, everyone.

The Caravan

The club's caravan is undergoing some refurbishment. First step was to replace the door lock with a new inbuilt combination lock. The door can be locked from the inside, too, as security for members when we are collecting money. If you need to get access to the van, Tony Woodhouse has the combination. Next up is to arrange a working bee to replace the bench top, install hydraulic struts to hold the flap open, fit some drawers (to be obtained from Officeworks), fit a cupboard (Bunnings), fit curtains, and check out the lighting.

New Councillor

The Bulletin offers its congratulations to Past President Fiona Stevens on her election as Councillor for the North Ward in the recent Mitchell Shire Council election. Well done, Fiona, who topped the voting tally.

Commemoration

Gary Doherty has asked us to commemorate a special day by wearing service medals and any other awards members may have on Monday night to our meeting.

The occasion is to celebrate the day for the surviving veterans from World War 11 who live in Seymour.

Eat Your Heart Out, VRC

The action was all at Seymour last Monday night, when we fitted into 1 ½ hours what takes a full day at Flemington.

Organised by Sharon Anderson-Warne, the evening was full of activity, right from the complimentary sparkling as you arrived.

Designing Jockey's colours, Fashions on the Field, gambling (in the form of sweeps), naming horses, placing a jockey (member's photo) on a horse, and even a horse race (only 3 horses, but that's all you need) were all part of the program: and a song from each table.

Members and their partners were really into the Cup theme, with style the word for the night. The Ladies Fashion in the Field was taken out by Julie Schulz, and the Men's won by Tony Lee. The sweeps were well subscribed. Time did not allow announcing the draw of horses on the night, but we can now tell you that the winners were:

$2	1 st	David Freeman	$28
	2 nd	Bob Collins	$12
	3 rd	Fiona McCarthy	$6
	Last	Catriona Jarman	$2
$2	1 st	Sue Goette	$28
	2 nd	Liz Derricks	$12
	3 rd	Cathy Gourbault-Lawrence	$6
	Last	Tony Lee	$2
$5	1 st	Greg Byers	$70
	2 nd	Marlene Campbell	$30
	3 rd	Greg Byers	$15
	Last	Viv Beaumont	$5
$5	1 st	Rita Collins	$70
	2 nd	David Freeman	$30
	3 rd	Jane Challis	$15
	Last	Ron Halicki	$5

(Collect your winnings at the meeting on Monday)

To close the evening, we had a race devised by Fiona McCarthy: 6 horses, to cover 6 squares from start to finish by a roll of the dice. Bets were placed, and those on the winning horse shared the spoils. It would have been interesting for a mathematician: 3 horses together at the last roll; and one which moved only 1 square.

I didn't know kids could now join Rotary.

Lessons in Rotary

I is often said that Rotary is an organisation of acronyms. This 6 part series is aimed at explaining some of the more common ones –

Week one we look at the RAWCS. Rotary Australia World Community Service.

Rotary Australia World Community Service [RAWCS] assists Rotary Clubs to develop and manage world community service projects. District 9790 Rotary Club are active in supporting developing countries in our region in the fields of health ,Hunger, Education, Water and Sanitation and other infrastructure and Humanitarian Aid programs through financial support and/or hands on participation
