Ruth's Ramblings

Wow what a start to the year! Last we meet at Fred's house for an informal gathering, which gave everyone the chance to catch up. Thankyou Fred for hosting us, it was much appreciated and thankyou also to Mariam Baker and Fred's sister for helping on the day.

It was lovely seeing Kevin Falkenbach again as well as welcoming Mark Dossor back on crutches.

I would like to thank the members who helped Julie and Michael Schulz a couple of weeks ago (you know who you are). In the aftermath of the storm that hit Seymour their house sustained flood and storm damage. Julie and Michael wish to pass on their sincere thanks to all who helped and have checked in on them since.

This is what I love about Rotary, we are there for one another and to help each other where possible, so again thanks.

Don't forget we have a working bee this Saturday at 10.00am at John Keeffe's house in Dempsey Rd, Seymour. Can you please advise John if you can help on 0429886865.

This coming Monday we are visiting BlueTongue Berries in Northwood Rd, we will run a bus out. If you require a seat on the bus please advise either Greg Byers or Tony Lee. Numbers need to be in for the night by Thursday evening please. We need to be extremely accurate with our numbers so please advise IF YOU ARE COMING.

I would like to wish you all a very happy New Year and I look forward to continuing to work with you in 2017.
