Making a Difference

MAY IS ROTARY INTERNATIONAL SERVICE MONTH.

President Ruth opened our meeting by asking PP Bryan Tehan to deliver our invocation. PE Ron Halicki provided the toast to the Rotary Club of Port Moresby which was chartered in 1957. Understandably the club has significant involvement with Rotary against Malaria [RAM]. Ruth welcomed the following guests :

- Harley Bird Carol
- Callum Watson & Naomi Nader
- Mark & Rob Sartori
- Hank Kreemers and wife Jennifer
- Cynthia Lim
- Ian McOwan

The meeting was handed to chairman Paulette Andrews who called for reports :

Secretary Ron Halicki advised that he attended the 50th anniversary celebrations of Seymour Senior Citizens here in Seymour, an organisation in which our club played an integral part in forming.

PP Mark Dossor continued his challenge to all members to do their bit in ensuring that our Comedy for a Cause event on 26th May is a success.

International Chair Sue Goette updated us on the potential Microsoft donation which would be in the form of software. We were also reminded of our soccer boot / soccer gear collection efforts [more information to come] Sue also reported that Tony Lee was back in hospital with a continuing problem but hopefully he would be home later in the week.

Foundation Chair PP John Keefe reminded us of the Foundation centenary this year and the objective of each member donating $28.50 to the Foundation. $28.50 being the initial amount donated to the Foundation. He encouraged us to all do so by Rotary's years end.

Pride of Workmanship and Community Service Awards

Our Chairman for the evening Paulette Andrews had the pleasure of announcing the following winners :

Callum Watson [pictured with Chairman Paulette]as an employee of Seymour Technology was nominated for a Pride of Workmanship Award due to what was deemed outstanding customer service. His nominator said “ you were able to provide a solution and even a tutorial so that I was able to avoid the issue in the future” She further stated that “you showed good grace , patience and respect in handling my enquiry promptly” Congratulations Callum!

Our second successful Pride of Workmanship nominee was Sartori’s Panel Works. Mark and Rob Sartori [pictured]took over the day to day business from father Fred in 2009. The business was nominated by a customer for the excellence in professional advice and customer service. The nominator stated that in addition to assessing and quoting the repair she was offered assistance in dealing with their insurers, pointing out the options available. Congratulation Mark and Rob.

Our Chairman Paulette stated that she took great assurance when young people, such as our winners, confidently step up to the plate, in this time of generational change, to keep good businesses thriving In our community.

Community service is an integral part of our community and indeed, community organisations would find it impossible to operate without volunteers.

Nominated by Cynthia Lim of local radio station 103.9fm for his commitment and significant contribution at the station, Hank Kreemers is the winner of our Community Service Award. As well as his radio work Hank is well known throughout the Seymour community for his other volunteer work on the King’s Park Management Committee, Community Transport and as a Vietnam Veteran he was also instrumental in the building of the Vietnam Commemorative Walk as well as the new WW1 memorial at the Seymour Hospital gates. A quiet achiever we congratulate Hank Kreemers.

[editors note : many of these words were lifted directly from Chairman Paulette Andrews presentation notes].

What's Happening

May is Bowel scan month
 26th May – Comedy for a Cause
 29th - May Lunch on the River
 26th June – changeover dinner

With our jackpot now standing at around $470.00 our visitor hank Kreemers drew the lucky ticket and walked away with $50 cash which he immediately handed back to the club as a donation.

Standing in as our fines master this work fining Fred Sartori by looking boys. Defying convention not being a Rotarian noting that he is was Cynthia Lim who had a 3 hour laminator at CartridgeWorld. With was fined but she will need to tell Bob wondered how many more meetings Time finally caught up with Dimitra trailer on Anzac Day. Our greeter while she was off getting a drink and Alan Walton put some coins in the box for not delivering a Bowel scan report. Finally Bryan crossfined Mark for commencing his meal prior to our invocation and toast.

week PP Greg Byers got straight to wondering where he got 2 such good visitor Hank Kreemers was fined for involved in everything else in town as discussion while purchasing a Bob not in attendance Rita Collins what for. Harley was fined as we all he was going to spend as a visitor. when she was fined for falling off a Catriona was fined for not greeting
