oooo0000oooo

This week's meeting was opened by President Ruth who welcomed all and thanked the RSL for being our host for the evening. Alan Walton provided our toast to the Rotary Club of Botany Bay during this Australia Day week and Greg Byers provided our invocation.

Community Service chair Greg Byers reported on progress for Australia Day and requested everyone's assistance. Membership Director Hugh Lawrence handed out potential membership forms and encouraged all to consider potential members carefully and supply names for follow up.

Our RSL hosts supplied a wonderful meal [Thankyou Tony Lee for your all your hard work] At the conclusion the dart board, tricky basketball, mini golf and quoits received a working over by both our Rotary members and the RSL members.

Rotarians at play.

WHAT'S GOING ON?

17,18,19 February - alternative expo parking
27 February - lunch on the river
25 February - brewers & goats on the hill at 7 hills
10,11,13 March - shake the can
13 March - labour day market [tbc]
16 - 19 March - District Conference

Our Fines master Hugh was at his very best tonight first of all extracting dollars from all Collingwood supporters [a bit early isn't it ?] Fred for the no knickers poster next to his black fridge and his face appearing on so many of his superstar pic's in his mancave. Ralph was pinged for his Willy Wonka look, Chaddy for retiring [will he won't he, that is the question] Mark was fined for the incorrect spelling of next week's guest speaker as was Cathy for a secret admiration of Oslo. Greg and Ruth were fined for poor communication [who would have believed that !] Poor Tony Lee was got yet again for visiting Heathcote after a long absence, or was it Castlemaine ? Greg was fined for not knowing where the local ANZ bank was and Hugh was crossfined for the forgettable Ian Morris. These amongst others sent $38.00 went into our coffers.

Planting the seeds of change

Our District Conference is imminent. President Ruth encourages all to attend as a real education into what Rotary really is. Please speak directly to Ruth regarding registration, costs and accommodation.
